

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the dividing line between said districts as run with said Old Church Road, beginning at a point where said road crosses the Western Maryland Railroad, near William Owings's Lower Mill (now Painter's Mill) and running to the Garrison Church, be and the same is hereby changed, and the north side of said new road made the dividing line between said districts, to wit: Beginning at the point where the north side of said old road crosses said Western Maryland Railroad, and running thence with the north side of said new road to the Reisterstown Turnpike Road; thence down said turnpike road to Shelley's Carpenter Shop, on the corner of said turnpike and a new road leading to the Garrison Church; running thence bounding on the north side of said new road to the intersection of another county road by said Garrison Church.

Old Church Road.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

In force.

Approved February 18, 1868.

---

CHAPTER 29.

AN ACT to incorporate the Atlantic Hotel Company, of Berlin, Worcester County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Lemuel Showell, James C. Dirickson, Henry B. Johnson and B. Jones Taylor, and all other persons who may subscribe to the stock of said Company, be and they are hereby created and declared to be a body politic, by the name and style of the Atlantic Hotel Company, of Berlin, and by that name and style shall and may have perpetual succession, and be capable in law of purchasing, holding, improving, contracting for ground or grounds, lot or lots, building or buildings, and every and all materials required or

Incorporation